Augusta, NJ -What began as a small crawfish boil in Northern New Jersey for 70 people homesick for Louisiana and boiled crawfish in 1989 has turned into Michael Arnone's 32nd Annual Crawfish Fest that now draws nearly 20,000 guests. Our next Crawfish Fest will be held May 30 – June 1, 2025, in Augusta, New Jersey at the Sussex County Fairgrounds, featuring the best food and music that Louisiana and New Orleans have to offer.

Featuring music on two stages, the initial line-up boasts a wide variety of talent including two-time Grammy winner Terrance Simien and the Zydeco Experience, five-time Grammy nominee Marcia Ball, Southern Avenue, Bonerama, Rockin' Dopsie, Jr. & the Zydeco Twisters, Corey Harris, Carolyn Wonderland, Maggie Koerner, Eddie 9V, Amis Du Teche, Johnny Sketch and The Dirty Notes, United By Music USA, Ocean Avenue Stompers, and Cold Hill. Saturday and Sunday main stage headliners and more will be announced soon.

In addition to top notch Louisiana musical talent, the festival showcases authentic Louisiana cuisine that is difficult to find anywhere in the Northeast. Featured items include Michael Arnone's Jambalaya, Boiled Crawfish, Oyster, Shrimp, and Catfish Po-Boys, Crawfish Etouffee, Red Beans, Boudin, Grilled Oysters, Southern Fried Chicken, and other Louisiana regional dishes.

Tickets, RV Hookups and Glamping Tents will go on sale October 1, 2024, and may be purchased online through Eventbrite

In addition to day tickets, Saturday/Sunday Combo Tickets, 3-day camping/admission tickets, limited RV Electric and water hookups are available. Campers are treated to Camper Only sets on Friday and Saturday Evening with free jambalaya on Friday for dinner. The 2025 CFF will introduce a limited number of "Glamping" tickets that will provide campers with a large tent, bed, linens, outdoor chairs, and more. Our new Interactive Hotel Map will make it simpler to find local lodging. Free Parking, Kids under 14 free with parents. Service animals only.
